

Raffle

Visit the Creative Guts table to purchase more raffle tickets for a chance to win these prizes at the conclusion of the festival:

- A free stay at The Hotel Concord (multiple winners!)
- A gift certificate to Granite State Escape for 4 people
- Merch from Creative Guts and Red River Theatres

Festival Merch

The Creative Guts table has examples of festival merch, (including tees, mugs, and totes), which you can custom order at www.teepublic.com/user/creative-guts.

Sponsors & Thanks

Thank you to Parker Education for sponsoring the Film Festival at the Producer Level! Parker Education serves the educational needs of families. Learn more at www.ParkerEducation.com.

Thank you to The Hotel Concord for sponsoring us at the Actor Level!

Thank you to Granite State Escape for sponsoring us at the Boom Operator level!

Thank you to Phommachak Singhavong (Joey), Cecilia Ulibarri, and Alexander Keown, who lent their time and expertise as guest jurors.

Thank you to Red River Theatres for your partnership!

NH Gives is a statewide 24-hour online fundraising event that is designed to connect donors to local nonprofits in NH and is happening tonight and tomorrow! Please consider supporting Creative Guts and Red River Theatres at www.nhgives.org.

CreativeGuts.org

RedRiverTheatres.org

The Creative Guts SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

Red River Theatres | June 11, 2024

An Ode to Film Creative Guts and Artful Harper Studios presents a love song to film making in this animation over live action film, to kick-off the film festival.

Zeppo! finds a balloon and is overwhelmed with joy. When tragedy strikes, the cruel mundanity of life takes control, leading Zeppo down a surreal path to self acceptance.
Noah Mauchly, Director

Don't Forget Your Childhood is your reminder to stay a child for as long as you can. You don't have forever and you should always have fun.
Grace Howe, Director, producer, actor, and editor

After The BEEP Jake's anxiety gets the best of him when he attempts to reach out to his father.
Ryan Nunes, Director, writer, producer, and actor

We Remember is a visual poem evoking the lives of the The Pike Hill copper miners in Corinth, VT. The film was shot on site, ahead of FEMA superfund clean up project slated to start in the summer of 2024.
Elizabeth Kurylo, Director and producer

The Water Seller Adan is a young water seller with a suit, and a bandit snatches his goods without reason.
Vainqueur Adan, Director

Three A.M. Two mothers grapple with the right way to protect their daughters from violence, internet predators, bowling parties, and the evening news.
Julia Trueblood, Producer and actor

Nipmuc Corn Harvest is a short documentary that addresses the critical issues of Indigenous land reclamation and food sovereignty through the narratives of Nipmuc tribe members. The film explores the historical and ongoing challenges faced by the Nipmuc people, highlighting the significance of preserving cultural heritage and advocating for land back.
Charlotte Cassidy, Producer

P.O. Disappointment can be a catalyst for change.
Caroline Herrold, Writer, director, and animator

A Story About Unchartered Tutoring The story behind the founding of Unchartered Tutoring, and why art is so important for all of us as humans. Mel Watanabe, Director and editor

10 Minute Intermission

Disposal When Ray is suddenly left unemployed, the financial, social, and legal barriers of poverty leave him teetering on the brink of homelessness.

Ben Ross, Director, writer, cinematographer, and editor

Home Burial Love and loss collide in this hauntingly beautiful adaptation of Robert Frost's poem, Home Burial.

Donald Tongue, Director and producer

A Momentary Stop Everyone thinks they know what's best for Olivia - but do they really understand her? Determined to begin a new chapter in her life, Olivia finishes packing for graduate school, but first she must attend to some unfinished business.

Brittany Severance, Writer and director

Cloudscape Nature provides relaxation for a stressed young woman. Caroline Herrold, Writer, director, and animator

Invisible As she deals with the crushing weight of living with her chronic illness, Riley begins to reach her breaking point.

Ryan Nunes, Director, writer, producer, and actor

The Belt A young girl uses her imagination to combat her abusive father. George Fraser, Writer and director

Karl: The Hitch Hiking Robot You're channel surfing when a news headline suddenly reminds you of a certain highly advanced robot.

Andrew (Drew) West, Director and producer

Just You and Me A film Noir love triangle with a murderous twist! Daniel Paul, Director

Poison Ivy With the help of his dog, Dad puts on a home-made musical about the dangers of poison ivy to the tune of "The Barber of Seville" for his wife and an entire retirement community. Could this be his big break?

Aubrie Flanigan, Producer

Awards

Heartstrings - Most moving

Funny Bone - Most humorous

Eye Opener - Most illuminating

Brain Stormer - Most creative

Gutsy - Most Vulnerable